

The U.S. Navy INVITES YOU TO PARTICIPATE in the Point Mugu Sea Range EIS/OEIS Scoping Process

The U.S. Navy is preparing an Environmental Impact Statement/Overseas Environmental Impact Statement (EIS/OEIS) for the Point Mugu Sea Range. The Navy proposes to continue conducting testing and training activities within the Study Area as analyzed in the 2002 Point Mugu Sea Range EIS/OEIS, as well as changes in activity frequency, new mission areas, and new platforms (such as aircraft and vessels).

Public Involvement

The Navy is requesting substantive input from the public on the scope of the analysis. Comments will be accepted at the scoping meetings, online at <http://pmsr-eis.com>, or by mail to:

Naval Air Warfare Center Weapons
Division Range Sustainability Office
Attention: EIS/OEIS Project Manager
